

O Presence,
Of God the Spirit
Of the Spirit within
Fill me and flow from me
So that I may be Present to self and others
So that I may create spaces in my life for experiences to happen
O Presence Come!

O Spirit of Love,
Abide in me, in my every action
So that loves flows through me and to the other
Love that smiles and listens
Love that freely gives
Love that is palpable in this world and for those I love
O Love Come!

O Joy of Spring,
Of mud and muck that must be
Of green shoots of possibilities
Of buds unfolding into beautiful flowers
Of a lovely spring canopy of leaves that both opens me up and shelters me, too
Open me to possibilities, to unfolding, all while providing sheltering comfort.
O Joy Come!
